hi folks,

my name is scott stuart, 3200 sheridan court, lincoln. 488 3876

i am 65, and lived in lincoln all my adult life short of my military service. i am a product of the lps and the univ. of nebr, class of 1969. married, retired from imperial outdoor advertising (now lamar) and a longtime board member of the national bank of commerce.

i ran for the council in 1993 and survived the primary, but not the general. my plan if selected would be to serve until the spring of 2013 election and then step down. i have no plans, nor will i, to seek election.

why me? because of my lincoln history, i have the time, and i have nothing to gain from service except satisfaction. i am a registered republican with moderate views and have always, all ways, been open to solid thinking.

do i have some agenda? no, just to represent the city as a whole, and not a group or idea. i believe in statesmanship, not partisanship. plus, my 8th grade civics teacher at millard lefler would be pleased!!!

respectfully,

scott stuart

hi mary,

sorry my e note did not come thru the first time!!! i do not have the original, but it is simple enough, as am i!!

my name is scott stuart. i have lived in lincoln all my life except for the years 1969-1975 when i was away for military service and beginning my career.

i am a product of the lps, and a graduate of the university of nebraska, class of 1965. i am married to jane, 24 years and we have lived at the same address, 3200 sheridan court since then. i am 65 years of age.

i ran for city council in 1993 and survived the primary, but not the general electon.

while i lived in lincoln, i managed and owned imperial outdoor advertising along with serving on the board of directors of the natl bank of commerce. during my working years i served on many community boards as well.

mrs. stuart and i are currently retired. i have time to serve, and nothing to gain by so doing. with no business interests, my votes would clearly and only be based on citizenship/statesmanship. i have no plans to run for election in 2013 or beyond, and would not were i asked. i am retired, and loving the freedom!

so, thanks for considering me. should i be selected it would be my goal/duty to give as much as i can back to the community that served me so well, and still does.

respectfully, scott stuart
